

GLOBAL TOP-100

An international platform bringing together the best of the best from all over the world.

About the project

Global TOP-100 is an international platform uniting specialists, opinion leaders, and brands from over 40 countries. Our mission is to promote, collaborate, and recognize the best in all fields.

The platform provides an opportunity not only for established leaders but also for emerging brands from all industries—fashion, business, art, technology, medicine, and others—to establish themselves internationally. We create a space for development, partnerships, and participation in global events, facilitating the expansion of professional networks and strengthening of reputations.
